

European Centre for Penological Studies and Chair of Criminology and Criminal Policy of Institute of Social Prevention and Resocialization of University of Warsaw invite to the Seminar from the series "Changing Penologies" on the up to date important issues of penal policy and penitentiary policy and penology, which will be held on 10 of May 2024 10.00-15.00 in the building of IPSiR Pochorążych Street 20 Warsaw in the room 37. Seminar is related to the promotion of the special issue of Archives of Criminology 2/2023 which was prepared in cooperation with European Centre for Penological Studies.

Programme

10.15. Meeting in room 37 and greeting of new members of European Centre for Penological Studies

10.30. Jarosław Utrat-Milecki, Opening speech, presentation of some issues from the special issue of Archives of Criminology nr 2/2023 on Changing Penologies

10.50-11.00 discussion

11.00 Joanna Banach Gutierrez

Human Dimension of a "Smart Prison" from Finnish Perspectives

11.20 discussion

11.30. Anthea Huckelsby,
Electronic Monitoring in England and Wales

11.50 discussion

12.00 . Free time (Break)

12.20 .Paweł Ostaszewski, Joanna Klimczak, Research on re-offending under the Electronic Monitoring System in Poland

12.40. discussion

12.50. Katarzyna Wiśniewska

Between justice and modernity: new technologies in criminal justice system".

13.10. Discussion

13.20, Sylwia Różycka-Jaroś,

Serious Case Review - the new procedure for protecting children against violence in Poland

13.40 discussion

13. 50 Jadwiga Królikowska, Avoiding Punishment. An example

14. 10 discussion

14.20 Marta Gomola, Penal liability of Juveniles in Poland compared to chosen European Countries

14. 40 discussion

14.50 J. Utrat-Milecki, Closing remarks

Departure for dinner